Scotland’s International Film Festival for Young Audiences

Dundee Contemporary Arts
SAT 24 OCTOBER TO SUN 8 NOVEMBER 2015
Here we are in our twelfth year with another outstanding selection of the best films for young audiences from all around the world. There’s also a dazzling exhibition of work by Japanese artist Hideyuki Katsumata in DCA Galleries and a packed programme of workshops and events for all the family. We look forward to seeing you soon!

#DiscoveryFilmFest  Facebook: DiscoveryFilmFestival  Twitter: @DCAdundee
HELLO FELLOW FILM FANS

Welcome to this year’s Discovery Film Festival! We Young Ambassadors are crazy excited to bring our selections to this year’s festival, and we hope you’ll be just as enthusiastic as we are! All ten of us had a lot of fun putting together the films, and we are looking forward to helping out during the festival proper. Each one of us has brought their own personal flair to Discovery, and all that’s missing now is you! We hope you really enjoy the festival this year!

Theodore, Elliot, Erasmus, Fin, James, Rachel, Rowan, Šean, Shaun and Stuart

WANT TO JOIN OUR GANG FOR DISCOVERY 2016?

AND YOU IN 2016?

We’re always looking for young people to get involved with Discovery Film Festival and other film activities year-round at DCA. If you’d be interested in joining our gang, learning more about film and helping to make the festival even better, we want to hear from you! If you’re aged 15-19 and love film – it doesn’t matter if it’s the latest blockbusters or the artiest art house, as long as you’re up for new things – email Mike for more info: mike.tait@dca.org.uk

“Enemy is one of the most disturbingly brilliant films of all time, and its ending is one of the most terrifying put to screen.” (Elliot)

“My ideal film would be a Taylor Swift biopic directed by Wes Anderson.” (Rachel)

“Having attended the festival myself various times, it is great to be given the chance to help with the programme.” (Shaun)

“I think film shows us the beauty and the ugly side of humanity, what we think the future will hold... plus that having super powers is pretty great and AI is the opposite.” (James)

“The Craft made me wish I could be part of a coven for weeks, if only for the outfits.” (Rowan)

“My favourite film of all time is Fargo: the dark comedy, the emotional depth, and the tragically amusing misuse of a woodchipper!” (Theodore)

“I’m a big fan of Pixar as it is one of the few film studios that can make films for both children and adults.” (Fin)

“Yes, I love Finding Nemo. A lot.” (Erasmus)

“When will Rick Moranis come back and act again?” (Stuart)

“Prince (p22) somehow manages to romanticise the council estate in a way that no other film can.” (Sean)
Join us for a fun-filled gala event featuring Paper Planes, an Australian film about the exciting world of paper plane flying contests. After the film you can create your own unique flying machine, enjoy some treats and explore this year’s Discovery exhibition in the Galleries.

Paper Planes
Opening Gala: Sat 24 October, 15:00
Sun 25 October, 13:00 / Sat 31 October, 15:30 / Sun 1 November, 15:30

In a remote community in Western Australia, 11 year-old Dylan is coming to terms with the recent death of his mother, and has to look after himself whilst his father (Sam Worthington) is overcome with grief. At school one day, he’s introduced to the art of creating paper planes and surprises everyone with his first record-busting attempt.

Taking part in the national finals, he qualifies for the World Paper Plane Championships, in Tokyo. Trying to raise the funds necessary for this once-in-a-lifetime experience, Dylan is helped by his school friends, the neighbours and his charmingly unconventional grandfather. But will Dylan’s success help rebuild his relationship with his father, and can his small-town creations really lift a world title?

Dir: Robert Connolly
Australia 2014 / 1h37m / U

ACTION ART WITH THE BIG DRAW
Sat 24 October, 14:00–15:00
All ages (Children under 8 accompanied by adult).
Activity Room — FREE, Drop in.
Gear up for the thrills of Discovery Film Festival and get inspired by artists and animators to create a wall of dynamic drawings that look like they really move and fly!

OPENING GALA AND PAPER PLANE CHAMPIONSHIP
Sat 24 October, 17:00–18:30
All Ages (children under 8 accompanied by adult).
Level 4 and Activity Room. — FREE with your cinema ticket.
Join us after the film to celebrate the launch of the festival! We’ll have cake, balloons and lots of fun activities. Explore Hideyuki Katsumata’s dreamlike exhibition, write a film review and line up in our gallery for a unique competition to see how far your paper plane can fly, just like in the movie! Make sure to sign up by 18:00 to enter the competition. Everyone who comes along to Paper Planes is invited!

PAPER POWER
Sat 24 October, 17:00–18:00
All Ages (children under 8 accompanied by adult).
Activity Room — FREE, Drop in.
Get set for the Discovery Paper Plane Championships with this inventive workshop. Using paper plus your imagination create a plane or flying machine that looks great and flies like the wind!

EXTRA WORKSHOP: PAPER FOLD AND FLY
Sun 1 November, 14:15–15:15
For ages 6+ (children under 8 accompanied by adult).
Activity Room – Book your place (£1 with cinema ticket).
Shorts for Wee Ones

Sun 25 October, 10:15 / Sat 31 October, 10:15 / Sat 7 November, 10:15

Here at Discovery we know your little ones like nothing more than a colourful collection of animated stories from around the world. So we’ve looked high and low and found these wee treasures from Belgium, Brazil, Germany, the USA, France and the UK.

You’ll meet a baby lamb who definitely thinks outside the field, an elephant who dreams of riding a shiny new bicycle and a cartoon stick-man who refuses to stay on the page. There is a rather vain fox with the most beautiful tail in the world, and a cat and a dog for whom a lightning storm brings amazing changes to their lives.

All these short films are in English or are dialogue free, so will be accessible for everyone.

These magical tales will delight children age 3+ and are a colourful introduction to the cinema experience.

Various directors
Various countries 2013-15 / 45m / Age 3+
English or dialogue free

FOR WEE ONES

WEE ONES WORKSHOPS

TELLING TAILS
Sat 31 October, 11:30–12:30
– Book your place (£1 with cinema ticket)
Get those tails wagging! Rummage in our materials box and make your very own tail to wear or to pin on one of the animal characters from the films.

IN THE ACTIVITY ROOM – SUITABLE FOR AGES 3+
Juice and snack provided
Children must be accompanied by an adult.

SHORT STORIES: BIG DRAWING
Sun 25 October, 10:30–12:30
– FREE, Drop in.
After seeing all the characters in our programme of amazing animated short films, go large with The Big Draw, illustrating and mapping out your own stories.

ALL THINGS ELEPHANT
Sat 7 November, 11:30–12:30
– Book your place (£1 with cinema ticket)
Have a peek at what we’ve got in our materials trunk and create your own elephant character to join the herd.
Shorts for Middle Ones

Sun 25 October, 11:30 / Sun 1 November, 10:15 / Sat 7 November, 11:55

With their distinctive glances at the world (and solar system) in which we live, this diverse collection of short films will excite and inspire those aged 8 and older.

We learn how important potted plants can be in space, how to draw improvements to the world around us and what happens when two young tearaways discover that appearances can be deceptive. There is a weird and wonderful high-speed chase that takes place through the history of art, and a warning that life is not always easy when your best friend is a frog. We also see that if you like your house to be spick and span, then getting a pet dog isn’t perhaps the wisest move.

All the films are dialogue free, demonstrating the wonderful art of telling stories purely through visuals. Who needs words when the pictures are so beautifully expressive?

These films are funny, sad, exhilarating, cautionary and touching.

Various directors
Various countries 2013-15 / 55m / Age 8+
Dialogue free
The Case of Hana and Alice
HANA TO ALICE SATSUJIN JIKEN

Sun 25 October, 11:00

Each year we link up with Scotland Loves Anime to bring you the latest in Japanese animation. This year it’s The Case of Hana and Alice, a teenage murder mystery set in a Japanese high school with two determined wannabe sleuths at its centre.

Alice has not long moved into the area after her parents separate and she faces the double challenge of a new home and a new school. Things get off to a shaky start on her first day when she’s given the desk where – according to the rumour mill – a student was murdered one year ago. The details are sketchy but her classmates talk of restless spirits who must be appeased, and when Alice discovers that her nosy new neighbour Hana is the schoolgirl who sat behind the student, she is determined to solve the mystery.

It’s always refreshing to see female characters with a movie to themselves, and the offbeat relationship between the withdrawn Hana and the impulsive Alice is a delight. Full of strange happenings and odd coincidences, this film will keep you on your toes, while the original friendship at the heart of the tale offers the most reward.

Dir: Shunji Iwai
Japan 2015 / 1h40m / Age 12+
Japanese with English subtitles

MANGA CHARACTERS
MASTERCLASS

Sun 25 October, 13:30–15:30
For ages 12+
– Book your place (£1 with cinema ticket).

Feeling inspired to draw your own anime characters after seeing the film? Join us for a hands on workshop led by local illustrator Richard McIlwray who will help you to really polish your Manga creation style.
Landfill Harmonic
Sat 31 October, 11:30

“The world sends us garbage... We send back music.”

This inspirational documentary charts the success of the Recycled Orchestra, made up of young people whose families live next to one of South America’s largest landfills. Following the inspired decision to make musical instruments from recycled garbage, the community orchestra was suddenly propelled from obscurity to global media attention when one of their videos went viral. Leaving their native Paraguay behind, they’re soon travelling the world, working with a series of high profile musicians. But when a natural disaster devastates their homes, can the youthful orchestra provide a source of hope for the very community that created it?

Whilst rooted in its portrayal of the transformative power of music, this documentary is equally about the resilience of the human spirit and the importance of holding on to your dreams. With its focus on aspiration, music, environmental concerns, the importance of family (in all its forms) and perseverance, this film will speak to everyone – and not just those with a musical talent.

Dirs: Brad Allgood, Graham Townsley
USA / Paraguay / Norway / Brazil 2015 / 1h25m / Ages 10+
Spanish with English subtitles
HIDEYUKI KATSUMATA
USO de HONTOU
Sat 3 October – Sun 15 November

For this year’s Discovery exhibition we’re delighted to bring the work of Japanese artist Hideyuki Katsumata to Dundee, in his biggest solo exhibition to date.

Hideyuki is an artist, illustrator and animator whose dazzlingly colourful and intricate work has appeared in many exhibitions around the world, as well as on record sleeves and in music videos. He draws on a range of influences including folklore, manga and popular culture, and combines traditional and contemporary techniques. His work is equally at home on YouTube, as a VJing set in a club, in art galleries or as street art.

The exhibition’s title, USO de HONTOU, translates as ‘that’s also unreal, but it’s also real’, which reflects the dream-like quality of Hideyuki’s work. For USO de HONTOU, the galleries will be transformed by Hideyuki’s expressive artworks: one will be given over to a large-scale mural that he will paint in the run-up to the opening. The exhibition will also feature projections of his animations and a selection of his drawings and prints, some of which he’ll be making in DCA Print Studio.

ART CART ADVENTURES
Sun 25 October / Sat 31 October / Sun 1 November / Sat 7 November
13:00–15:00
For all ages
(children under 8 accompanied by adult).
– FREE, Drop in, Level 4.
Drop in and explore!
Art Cart Adventures offer fun and active ways to explore the exhibition via drawing, making your own badge and creating a zoetrope strip.

MOVING MURALS
Sun 8 November, 11.00–15.00
For ages 12+
– FREE, but please book in advance.
Be inspired by the murals and moving images in the exhibition and join #YAS, our young artists’ group, to make your own colourful images that move to music.
When not having to pick and sell coal from the railway tracks near their Chennai slum, two young brothers play cricket with their friends on a nearby patch of derelict land – until this is taken over for a brand new shopping mall. Excited by promotional adverts on local TV for the newly opened pizza parlour, they are mesmerised by the prospect of tasting this exotic delicacy and set out to raise the money required to buy their very own pizza. As barriers to their plan suddenly appear, so their determination increases – and any and all actions become justified in their single-minded devotion to the task in hand.

How far would you go for something you’d set your heart on?

In this touching comedy we see some of the realities of life in a slum community – as the director notes: “I wanted to depict life in a slum realistically but also didn’t want to advertise India’s poverty to the world”. It’s an occasionally hard-edged portrayal – the law is not just bent, but broken – but captures the daily challenges the family have to face. You’ll be rooting for the brothers and their campaign by the end – and, yes, that pizza does indeed look tempting...

Dir: M. Manikandan
India 2014 / 1h39m / Age 10+
Tamil with English subtitles

When not having to pick and sell coal from the railway tracks near their Chennai slum, two young brothers play cricket with their friends on a nearby patch of derelict land – until this is taken over for a brand new shopping mall. Excited by promotional adverts on local TV for the newly opened pizza parlour, they are mesmerised by the prospect of tasting this exotic delicacy and set out to raise the money required to buy their very own pizza. As barriers to their plan suddenly appear, so their determination increases – and any and all actions become justified in their single-minded devotion to the task in hand.

How far would you go for something you’d set your heart on?

In this touching comedy we see some of the realities of life in a slum community – as the director notes: “I wanted to depict life in a slum realistically but also didn’t want to advertise India’s poverty to the world”. It’s an occasionally hard-edged portrayal – the law is not just bent, but broken – but captures the daily challenges the family have to face. You’ll be rooting for the brothers and their campaign by the end – and, yes, that pizza does indeed look tempting...

Dir: M. Manikandan
India 2014 / 1h39m / Age 10+
Tamil with English subtitles

When not having to pick and sell coal from the railway tracks near their Chennai slum, two young brothers play cricket with their friends on a nearby patch of derelict land – until this is taken over for a brand new shopping mall. Excited by promotional adverts on local TV for the newly opened pizza parlour, they are mesmerised by the prospect of tasting this exotic delicacy and set out to raise the money required to buy their very own pizza. As barriers to their plan suddenly appear, so their determination increases – and any and all actions become justified in their single-minded devotion to the task in hand.

How far would you go for something you’d set your heart on?

In this touching comedy we see some of the realities of life in a slum community – as the director notes: “I wanted to depict life in a slum realistically but also didn’t want to advertise India’s poverty to the world”. It’s an occasionally hard-edged portrayal – the law is not just bent, but broken – but captures the daily challenges the family have to face. You’ll be rooting for the brothers and their campaign by the end – and, yes, that pizza does indeed look tempting...

Dir: M. Manikandan
India 2014 / 1h39m / Age 10+
Tamil with English subtitles
Being 14
À 14 ANS

Sun 1 November, 11:30

Fourteen year-olds Sarah, Louise and Jade are friends about to begin their final year of middle school in suburban Paris. Sarah is rebellious and reckless, lurching from one risk-taking situation to the next. Louise’s relationship with her mother is strained, so she leaves home and moves in with her grandmother. Jade is forced to find new friends when she falls out with both Sarah and Louise over some vicious rumours that are doing the rounds at school.

Deliberately provocative in its depiction of teenagers, Being 14 is very much based on the realities of some lives. Words are weapons and reputation is everything. For every action there is a reaction, and we see behind the masks that these young women wear each day, and the pain they feel in the situations they face.

Dir: Hélène Zimmer
France 2015 / 1h26m / Age 15+
French with English subtitles

WHAT OUR DISCOVERY YOUNG AMBASSADORS SAID:

• “Raw, bold, terrific”
• “As a girl, I loved it. So, so much”
• “An effective combination of great writing and fantastic casting to capture the fragility, brutality and severity that teenage years can pose”
• “A really good representation of young people”
• “Some moments were incredibly jarring and very real. This film struck a chord friendship-wise”
• “I liked how we saw life through each character’s perspective”
• “You’ll enjoy this if you like Skins or Boyhood”

Antboy – Revenge of the Red Fury
ANTBOY – DEN RODE FURIES HÆVN

Sat 7 November, 10:15

Following his defeat of the arch villain Albert Gæmelkrå (aka The Flea), Antboy is the toast of the town and something of a celebrity. But 13 year-old Pelle Nørhmann – the boy behind the ant mask – is finding it very hard to balance his everyday life with his superhero responsibilities. As a new threat to the city is posed by The Terror Twins, the latest benefactors of The Flea’s sinister DNA altering serum, Antboy must foil their attempts to wreak havoc. Meanwhile, Pelle has to deal with his own problems at school caused by Christian, the new (and supercool) kid in town who has designs on Ida, Pelle’s favourite classmate.

Antboy returns to our screens in his latest blockbusting adventure following his huge success at last year’s Discovery Film Festival. Don’t worry if you missed 2014’s instalment, you’ll soon be up to speed with the comic book conventions and Antboy’s very special abilities (including acidic pee that destroys ceramics and metals!). Focusing on how unique talents can often lead to feelings of being left out and isolated, and the redeeming power of friendship, this is a rip-roaring superhero movie firmly rooted in the world of the young. Who needs Ant-Man when Antboy is in town?

Dir: Ask Hasselbalch
Denmark 2014 / 1h20m / Age 8+
Danish with English subtitles
Prince

PRINS

Sat 7 November, 11:20

Summer on the housing estate, and it’s a dog-eat-dog world, especially for teenagers. Respect has to be earned, and if you drive a purple Lamborghini then you’re definitely top of the heap. Seventeen year-old Ayoub is definitely not anywhere near those heights. He fancies Laura something rotten, but her boyfriend is well hard. How can Ayoub ever compete? He has hardly any money, shares a tiny room with his sister, his mother is stressed and his addict father lives on the streets. Something has to be done. When Ayoub drums up the courage to speak to the outlandish owner of the aforementioned Lamborghini, he opens up a whole can of (particularly vicious) worms…

With colour, wit and style, Prince is an eye-poppingly garish visual feast, depicting the trials and tribulations of contemporary teenage life on an urban estate. There is no room for greys and muted tones here, and it is a refreshingly stylised – and hugely entertaining – representation of youth on the edge. Our Young Ambassadors loved it!

Dir: Sam de Jong
Netherlands 2015 / 1h17m / Age 15+
Dutch with English subtitles

WHAT OUR DISCOVERY YOUNG AMBASSADORS SAID:
“A great mix of humour and drama”
“A heartbreaking and heartwarming coming of age story unlike any I’ve ever seen”
“Gripping the whole way through”
“Unpredictable and fast-paced”
“Awesome soundtrack”
“Both surprising and relatable”
“You’ll enjoy this if you like Trainspotting, The Guest, Gomorrah, City of God”

WHAT OUR DISCOVERY YOUNG AMBASSADORS SAID:
“A great mix of humour and drama”
“A heartbreaking and heartwarming coming of age story unlike any I’ve ever seen”
“Gripping the whole way through”
“Unpredictable and fast-paced”
“Awesome soundtrack”
“Both surprising and relatable”
“You’ll enjoy this if you like Trainspotting, The Guest, Gomorrah, City of God”

dir: som de jong
netherlands 2015 / 1h17m / age 15+
dutch with english subtitles
Operation Arctic
OPERASJON ARKTIS
Sun 8 November, 11:00

Thirteen year-old Julia and her twin siblings Sindre and Ida, aged 8, have recently moved to a small Norwegian town with their mother. Desperate to see their father, they secretly stow away on a helicopter at the local military base, which they believe will take them to him. Unfortunately, the helicopter changes its route and soon they find themselves lost and alone on the deserted Half Moon Island in the northern Arctic Ocean. Now the three are forced to face challenges they had never ever dreamed of – limited supplies of food, icy blizzards, hungry polar bears on the doorstep and no way of getting a message back to their parents. Can they survive long enough to work out how to get back home?

This is a thrilling, epic adventure story and a modern twist on the Robinson Crusoe narrative, set on an entirely different kind of deserted island. Learning to survive in the harshest of environments would challenge any adult, so the pressure on Julia to look after her brother and sister forces them all to reconsider their relationships with each other and with the world at large.

Terrific performances from the young cast, plus outstanding cinematography that really captures the powerful force of nature that is the Arctic wilderness, make for an outstanding family film.

So – what exactly would you do in their situation?

Dir: Grethe Bøe-Waal
Norway 2014 / 1h27m / Age 10+
Norwegian with English subtitles

Dessau Dancers
Sun 8 November, 10:30

The year is 1985 and when Frank and his friend Alex see a film about New York breakdancers, they practically backflip out of the cinema onto the streets of their hometown of Dessau, East Germany. Their street corner dancing soon draws a crowd, including members of the Stasi who are initially concerned by the Western attitudes of the young dancers. And so ‘acrobatic show dance’ is born – a state-sponsored art form. But how long can this enforced collaboration last? And how much compromise will the young dancers accept?

This is a fascinating mix of film genres and styles – think The Lives of Others meets Street Dance – and offers a truly unique vision of a time and a place that already seems worlds away. Teenage rebellious high spirits and the demand for social conformity will always create sparks – as this film demonstrates with all the vibrancy and panache of a dayglo tracksuit spinning around on a piece of cardboard.

Dir: Jan Martin Scharf
Germany 2014 / 1h31m / Age 15+
German with English subtitles

WHAT OUR DISCOVERY YOUNG AMBASSADORS SAID:
“Entertaining, fast-paced and funny, with more serious undertones”
“GENIUS idea”
“A fun film with great dancing”
“Groovy”
“Loved the political tones (made me want to overthrow the government)”
“Amazing soundtrack”
“You’ll enjoy this if you like Pitch Perfect, Fame, Step Up or Footloose”
Labyrinthus

Sun 8 November, 15:00

Frikke, a 14 year-old boy, comes across a computer game and discovers to his horror that it is being played with real children, trapped inside a fiendish labyrinth. As he plays, he meets Nola, and determines to do whatever he can to rescue her. But the game’s creator warns Frikke that he will harm Nola if Frikke loses, or quits playing. Things get worse when Markus, Frikke’s best friend, also gets drawn into the labyrinth. In a race against time, can Frikke solve the secret code and stop the evil genius who has manufactured this despicable game?

It’s only fitting that this film should have the chance to be seen in Dundee, the birthplace of so many fine examples of terrific computer games – though we sincerely hope that no games of this kind are currently in development! With its dazzling visual effects and ingenious use of green screen, this is a gripping tale for gamers and non-gamers alike.

Dir: Douglas Boswell
Belgium / Netherlands 2014 / Digital / 1h39m / Age 10+
Dutch with English subtitles

WHAT OUR DISCOVERY YOUNG AMBASSADORS SAID:
“A fun film with great characters and a gripping plot”
“The visuals and CGI throughout were great”
“Their comedic timing was brilliant”
“Mixes fantasy with reality very well”
“A super mix of storytelling and special FX”
“Keeps you on the edge of your seat”
“You’ll enjoy this if you like The Matrix, Jumanji or Tron”

Discovery Film Festival
Sun 8 November, 12:30 – 14:30
For ages 10+. Level 4.
– FREE, drop in.

With our closing film focused on a game with surprising powers, we’re holding another instalment of DCA’s popular Drop in and Play event! We’ve teamed up with Abertay University to bring together a selection of family friendly games from some of the most talented local developers: come along, try them out and talk to the creators about their games. You can also find out about our Code Club, which helps 9 – 11 year-olds learn to code and make their own games.

Abertay University

Discovered Film Festival
Discoveryfilmfestival.org.uk
DISCOVERY FAMILY FILM CLUB

Enjoy the fun of Discovery all year at Discovery Family Film Club! With films and workshops every fortnight, DCA is the perfect place to see the best cinema on the big screen and enjoy a fantastic workshop together as a family.

Discovery Family Film Club continues after Discovery Film Festival with all-action hamster adventure My Friend Raffi, French classic Asterix and Obelix and the latest blockbusting version of J.M. Barrie’s Pan coming up this winter. Films cost £5 for under 21s and £5.70 for adults. A family of four ticket costs £16. Workshops are free with your cinema ticket but please book in advance. We’ll see you there!

Jane and her son Lloyd (10) attend lots of Discovery films and workshops and think that you should too! Here’s what they had to say about the fun they’ve had at DCA...

“I enjoy the films, the staff are really friendly, the artwork is amazing and it’s good fun.” Lloyd

“It’s educational as well as being great entertainment. Lloyd has learned a lot of different artistic skills: from felt brooch making to puppets and animation.” Jane

“One of my favourites was making a robot. We were given everyday scraps and had to use our imagination.” Lloyd

“Children can be in one of Scotland’s top art exhibitions and enjoy the Art Cart and a fantastic film all in one afternoon. It really is aimed at all ages.” Jane

“DCA show unusual films that you don’t see anywhere else, that is DCA’s specific thing: art and films.” Lloyd

“My favourite was The Book of Life. The film itself was truly a piece of art, the story was unusual, thoughtful and the animation and colour was quite stunning.” Jane Tracey gets to create the exciting workshops that we host alongside Discovery Family Film Club. It’s a challenging, fun and very enjoyable job...

“Every week is completely different and it’s a nice challenge to think up a new workshop for every film. They last just under an hour and everyone gets to create something to take home.”

“It’s important to me that activities let families make something together, so I try and design workshops where that’s encouraged.”

“My favourites would be a tie between the giant vegetable patch for The Curse of the Were-Rabbit (with balloon aubergines, sparkly golden bananas and triangle carrots!) and our Moomin dream hotel challenge for Moomins on the Riviera.”
TICKETS AND INFO

FILMS
- £5 for under 21s
- £5.70 for over 21s
- Family ticket for four people £16

Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult in the cinema.

WORKSHOPS
£1 with your cinema ticket unless otherwise stated. Places are limited for non-drop-in workshops and must be booked in advance.

HOW TO BOOK
Call us on: 01382 909 900 Find us at: discoveryfilmfestival.org.uk | dca.org.uk

VENUE
Discovery Film Festival is a DCA project and takes place at:
Dundee Contemporary Arts, 152 Nethergate, Dundee, DD1 4DY

FINDING US
DCA is a five minute walk from Dundee Train Station and a 15 minute walk from Dundee Bus Station. For more information on how to get here and travel within Dundee, visit dundeetravelinfo.com

SUPPORTED BY: