

This week two extraordinary cinematic road trips lead our programme. Along with a chance to see Wim Wenders' beloved Paris, Texas back on the big screen, we're thrilled to be screening new Iranian film Hit The Road, directed by Panah Panahi, son of celebrated film-maker Jafar Panahi.

Hit The Road has been described as a "Persian Little Miss Sunshine" and is a funny and beautiful road trip through the Iranian countryside that is equal parts heart-warming and heart-breaking. With the elder Panahi being arrested for his outspoken critique of the Iranian regime, this truly special film couldn't be more timely.

If you're looking for more, our online streaming platform, DCA at Home, is full of new titles! Treat yourself to a film this week, and know that you're supporting DCA and Dundee's only independent cinema.
