

Nicolas Cage returns to screens this week at DCA Cinema with Dream Scenario, a surreal comedy from director Kristoffer Borgli (Sick of Myself). Cage enthralls as a hapless family man, whose life is turned upside down when millions start seeing him in their dreams.

We also welcome Saltburn, which stars Barry Keoghan as an Oxford student who becomes embroiled in the lives of an eccentric upper-class family, and On the Adamant, a touching documentary about an unusual mental health facility. There's also still time to see gripping psychological drama Anatomy of a Fall.

Elsewhere, catch X: The Life and Times of Malcolm X broadcast Live from the Met, enjoy Powell & Pressburger's A Canterbury Tale, and see Dame Maggie Smith in The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie. Finally, join us for Girl, a heartfelt drama about a mother and daughter trying to settle in Glasgow. We're thrilled that writer/director Adura Onashile will be joining us for a Q&A after the screening.

Fri 17 – Thu 23 November

Dream Scenario (15, 1h42m)

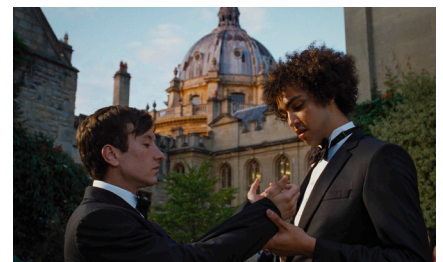

This surreal comedy stars Nicolas Cage as a man who becomes an overnight sensation after appearing in the dreams of millions.

Dream Scenario

Saltburn (15, 2h7m)

An Oxford student (played by Barry Keoghan) becomes embroiled in his classmate's aristocratic family life in this darkly funny thriller.

Saltburn

On the Adamant (PG, 1h50m)

This warm French documentary invites us to step on board The Adamant, a unique floating mental health facility on the River Seine.

On the Adamant

Anatomy of a Fall (15, 2h32m)

A woman becomes the prime suspect in the mysterious death of her husband in this gripping psychological drama.

Girl + Director Q&A (12A, 1h27m)

A mother and daughter experience changes after settling in Glasgow. We will welcome director Adura Onashile for a post-screening Q&A.
