

Richard Linklater (Blue Moon) returns to the director's seat for Nouvelle Vague, the compelling story of Jean-Luc Godard making French new wave classic Breathless. We're also screening Breathless – see both for the special price of just £16.

We've got more screenings of Emerald Fennell's Wuthering Heights, along with H is for Hawk and Hamnet. You can also see Kristen Stewart's poetic directorial debut The Chronology of Water, along with acclaimed feature My Father's Shadow, set in Nigeria in 1993.

Join us for music documentary Paul McCartney: Man on the Run and NT Live: *The Audience starring Helen Mirren. The Japan Foundation Touring Film Programme begins with The Hotel of My Dream and Teki Cometh - you can see three or more films from this season for the special price of just £8 each. Enjoy!

Fri 20 - Thu 26 February

Nouvelle Vague (12A, 1h46m)

This mischievous love letter to 1959 cult film Breathless sees Richard Linklater employ techniques characteristic of the era.

Nouvelle Vague

Wuthering Heights (15, 2h16m)

A passionate love story set on the Yorkshire moors, starring Margot Robbie as Cathy and Jacob Elordi as her tortured lover Heathcliff.

Wuthering Heights

The Chronology of Water (18, 2h8m)

Kristen Stewart adapts Lidia Yuknavitch's memoir, an unflinching and poetic look at resilience after trauma, starring Imogen Poots.

The Chronology of Water

My Father's Shadow (12A, 1h33m)

Framed by the political landscape of 1993 Lagos, this acclaimed debut from Akinola Davies Jr explores father-son relationships.

H is for Hawk (12A, 1h55m)

Claire Foy delivers a powerful performance as an academic who copes with the death of her father by training a wild hawk.
