

Luca Guadagnino (Challengers) returns to the director's seat for After the Hunt, a gripping psychological drama starring Julia Roberts, while Harris Dickinson makes his directorial debut with acclaimed social drama Urchin.

There's more time to see uplifting Scottish film I Swear and to enjoy Discovery Family Film Club: Shorts for Wee Ones and Shorts for Families. Live from the Met returns with La Sonnambula, there's NT Live: *Mrs Warren's Profession and we're screening an Angel at My Table (35mm) with Scottish Mental Health Arts Festival.

Our collection of Dundee screenings for Halloween continue this week with claustrophobic horror The Descent (20th Anniversary 4K Restoration), surreal The Wizard of Oz sequel Return to Oz (40th Anniversary) and there's eighties fun to be had with Evilspeak screening from a VHS tape. Enjoy!

Fri 17 - Thu 23 October

After the Hunt (15, 2h19m)

This captivating drama sees a college professor at a crossroads after her star student levels an accusation at one of her colleagues.

After the Hunt

Urchin (15, 1h39m)

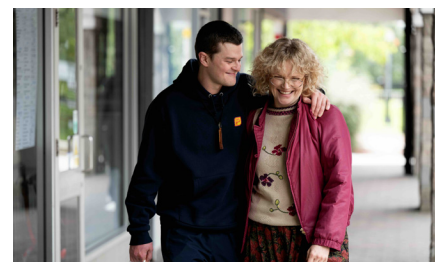

Harris Dickinson makes his directorial debut with this poetic social drama about a rough sleeper caught in a cycle of self-destruction.

Urchin

I Swear (15, 2h)

A true story which follows the triumphs and challenges of a young man with Tourette's Syndrome growing up in Scotland in the 1980s.

I Swear

The Descent (20th Anniversary 4K) (18, 1h40m)

A group of women experience a caving expedition gone horribly wrong in one of the most claustrophobic horror films ever made.

Evilspeak (VHS) + short film (18, 1h37m + 5m short)

We're screening this delightfully ridiculous and inventive eighties horror from an original VHS tape for maximum nostalgia.
