

It's a week of action, adventure and music at DCA Cinema, kicking off with the Glasgow-filmed Spider-Man: Brand New Day, starring Tom Holland, Zendaya and some familiar faces from the Marvel Cinematic Universe.

Christopher Nolan's box office phenomenon The Odyssey continues, with more 35mm showtimes by popular demand – catch it on the big screen while you can! Then there's contemporary urban drama Ish, screening as part of our Rip It Up season on youth culture, and the electrifying musical experience of David Byrne's American Utopia.

For younger film fans, we've got the new live-action reimagining of Moana, and our Discovery Family Film Club screening of short films from the London International Animation Festival. Enjoy!

Fri 31 July - Thu 6 August

Spider-Man: Brand New Day (12A, 2h24m)

Tom Holland returns in this dark and thrilling new chapter for Spider-Man – look out for web-slinging action scenes filmed in Glasgow.

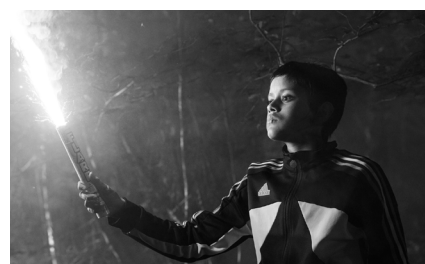

Spider-Man: Brand New Day

The Odyssey (15, 2h52m)

Christopher Nolan's spectacular adventure, based on the legendary Greek epic. We're showing both the digital and 35mm versions.

Ish (15, 1h29m)

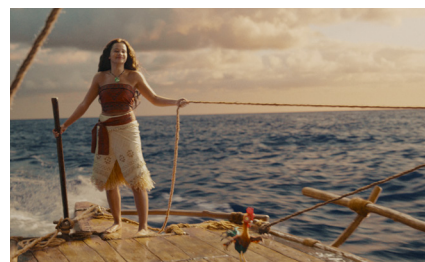

In this acclaimed coming-of-age drama, young teens Ish and Maram struggle to remain friends in the aftermath of a police stop and search.

Ish

Moana (PG, 1h55m)

There's family-friendly music, action and fun in this live action version of Disney's hit animated tale. Don't miss our singalong screenings!

Moana

David Byrne's American Utopia (12A, 1h45m)

Directed by Spike Lee, David Byrne delivers an exhilarating rush of iconic songs, infectious energy and pure theatrical joy.
