

Beetlejuice is back! Join us at DCA Cinema this week for Beetlejuice Beetlejuice, the long-anticipated follow-up to Tim Burton's eighties classic. Burton returns to direct this sequel, which stars Michael Keaton, Winona Ryder and Catherine O'Hara reprising their iconic roles. Get ready for spooky fun, mischief and mayhem.

Travel to Tudor England for Firebrand, which focuses on Catherine Parr, the last wife of Henry VIII, and drama Paradise is Burning follows three young sisters living alone in a working-class area of Sweden. Experimental feature Clandestina uses time travel to explore issues of political dissidence, and our Women Hold Up Half the Sky season featuring Chinese films begins with Guián.

Elsewhere, see blur's historic 2023 concert with blur: Live at Wembley, experience post-war Vienna in The Third Man (4K Restoration), and see Jodie Comer's West End debut in NT Live: Prima Facie. Our Cinema Rediscovered season concludes with Venezuelan feature El Cine Soy Yo (4K Restoration), and our Discovery Family Film Club film for this month is animation Puffin Rock and the New Friends. Enjoy!

Fri 6 - Thu 12 September

Beetlejuice Beetlejuice (12A, 1h44m)

Tim Burton is back in the director's chair for this lively sequel to 1988's Beetlejuice, which sees the return of the mischievous demon.

Sing Sing

Firebrand (15, 2h1m)

In Tudor England, Catherine Parr fights for survival against an increasingly unstable King Henry VIII, played boldly by Jude Law.

The Mountain Within Me

Paradise is Burning (15, 1h48m)

A teenager and her young sisters survive on wits alone after their mother leaves them in this fresh and authentic drama from Sweden.

Paradise is Burning

Clandestina (tbc, 1h22m)

This experimental film from Portugal uses temporal anachronism to explore the political activism and the cyclical nature of history.

The Third Man (4K Restoration) (PG, 1h44m)

This 1949 film noir captures the cynical spirit of post-war Europe and is considered to be one of the best British films of all time.
