

Get ready as 28 Years Later arrives this week at DCA Cinema. Director Danny Boyle (Trainspotting) and writer Alex Garland (Civil War) reunite for this terrifying new story, set in the post-apocalyptic universe of 28 Days Later.

Take a trip to the Isle of Skye for romantic drama Falling into Place and join us for Mongrel, a sombre yet striking story of undocumented Thai immigrants in rural Taiwan. The Salt Path is back by popular demand, and our final film to celebrate Dundee Pride is Bent on 35mm.

The UK Green Film Festival returns to DCA for 2025 - join us for The Sky Above Zenica and Searching for Amani, the first two of three documentaries which follow communities on the frontlines of the climate crisis. You can see all three of these films for the special price of £24 when booked at the same time. Enjoy!

Fri 20 - Thu 26 June

28 Years Later (15, 1h55m)

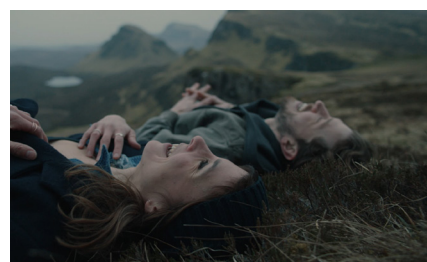

In this terrifying zombie thriller, a group of survivors venture beyond the safety of their island into the dark heartland of the infected.

28 Years Later

Falling into Place (15, 1h35m)

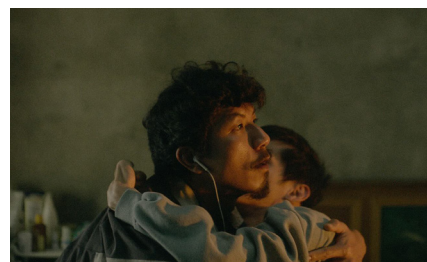

An intelligent and nuanced romantic drama which sees two strangers fall in love amidst the dramatic landscapes of the Isle of Skye.

Falling into Place

Mongrel (15, 2h8m)

This impressive directorial debut follows an undocumented Thai immigrant who works as a caregiver while facing exploitation.

Mongrel

The Salt Path (12A, 1h55m)

The profound true story of a husband and wife who embark on a 630-mile trek along the coast of England after being made homeless.

Bent (35mm) (18, 1h40m)

Our final Dundee Pride film is this powerful and moving tale of love in the face of persecution, set in pre-war fascist Germany.
