

Start your engines – The Bikeriders races on to screens at DCA Cinema this week! Featuring an unrecognisable Jodie Comer as strong-willed Midwesterner Kathy, this vivid drama follows her life embroiled in a 1960s motorcycle club, the Vandals. Don't miss this thrilling combination of old-fashioned western and mob drama.

We travel back in time even further with Rosalie, a bold and beautiful romance set in 1870s France, and Freud's Last Session, which takes place during Sigmund Freud's final days in 1939. We're also screening Yasujirô Ozu's masterpiece Late Spring on 35mm, to celebrate V&A Dundee's Kimono: Kyoto to Catwalk exhibition, and stunning ballet showcase Dance Revolutionaries.

Elsewhere, delve into environmental issues with our UK Green Film Festival documentaries, Deep Rising and Light Needs and we're screening two fascinating films to coincide with Scottish Refugee Week: animated adventure Dounia and the Princess of Aleppo and critically-acclaimed deadpan comedy-drama Limbo. Enjoy!

Fri 21 - Thu 27 June

The Bikeriders (15, 1h56m)

Capturing a rebellious time in American history, this thrilling drama follows the evolution of the Vandals, a Midwestern motorcycle club.

The Bikeriders

Rosalie (15, 1h55m)

In France, 1870, Rosalie is a woman with a secret...her face and body are covered in hair. A bold, romantic story of self-acceptance.

Rosalie

Freud's Last Session (12A, 1h48m)

This adaptation of Mark St. Germain's acclaimed stage play follows an imagined debate between Sigmund Freud and C.S. Lewis.

Freud's Last Session

Deep Rising (12A, 1h25m)

Narrated by Jason Momoa, this environmental documentary considers the mysterious power of the ocean in sustaining life.

Late Spring (35mm) (U, 1h48m)

Yasujirô Ozu's hugely influential masterpiece, Late Spring is a poignant meditation of family politics, sacrifice and the status quo.
