

Don't miss Back to Black this week at DCA Cinema, a celebration of the most iconic homegrown star of the 21st century, Amy Winehouse. This vibrant biopic honours Amy's artistry, wit and honesty, while also trying to understand her demons.

For more heartfelt drama, join us for Bleeding Love, which features Ewan McGregor and his real-life daughter Clara as a parent and child on a poignant road trip. You can also see eco-parable Evil Does Not Exist from Oscar-winning Drive My Car director Ryusuke Hamaguchi, and the stirring, psychedelic Disco Boy starring Franz Rogowski.

Elsewhere, enjoy a 4K restoration of Scottish classic Ratcatcher, step into the world of an iconic painter with Exhibition on Screen: John Singer Sargent – Fashion & Swagger and see culture-clash comedy Pride, screening in partnership with Speak Out. Finally, Catalan Film Festival returns with Short Films + Q&A with Director Julieta Lasarte, and animation They Shot the Piano Player. Enjoy!
