

This week at DCA we dive into the arts! Kokuho takes us to Japan for its highly stylized form of theatre known as Kabuki, most recognised for its elaborate costumes, dramatic makeup, and powerful, expressive performances. Steven Soderbergh's new film The Christophers is fuelled by the question 'What is the value of art?' A remarkable tale of creativity, legacy, and avarice. Filmed on 16mm film, Rose of Nevada is a time travelling sci-fi drama starring George MacKay and Callum Turner, alongside Francis Magee, from acclaimed Cornish filmmaker Mark Jenkin.

A.I. Artificial Intelligence (25th Anniversary) is back on our screens to celebrate 25 years since its first release! Don't miss out the chance to revisit this sci-fi favourite ahead of Spielberg's new film, Disclosure Day, out in June.

The Devil Wears Prada 2 continues bringing glam and couture to our screens alongside additional screenings of California Schemin' and Glenrothan. Don't miss out on these amazing celebrations of Scotland on film.

Fri 15 - Thu 21 May

The Christophers (15, 1h40m)

Ian McKellen stars in this comedy-drama as a broke, once acclaimed painter, that hasn't put paint to canvas for decades. His two estranged children hire an art restorer to pose as a prospective assistant to forge some unfinished artworks to be 'discovered' after his death.

Rose of Nevada

Rose of Nevada (15, 1h54m)

Cornish filmmaker Mark Jenkin's hotly anticipated new film. The Rose of Nevada is a fishing boat lost with all hands 30 years ago that mysteriously reappears in the old harbour of a Cornish village. The boat must go out to sea again with a new crew, but upon their return they discover they've slipped back in time.

Kokuho

Kokuho (15, 2h54m)

In 1964 Nagasaki, 14-year-old Kikuo loses his father and is taken under the wing of a legendary Kabuki actor alongside the man's son. The two boys rise from acting school to the grandest stages, facing scandal, betrayal, and the intoxicating lure of glory, but only one can emerge as a true master of Japan's most revered theatrical art.

The Christophers

Miroirs No. 3 (15, 1h26m)

On a rural German road, a woman named Laura survives a car crash that kills her partner. She is taken in by an older woman whom she willingly becomes a blank canvas for the stranger's motherly care and devotion. A compelling tale about the connections that bring us back to life after suffering from tragedy.
