

DUNDEAD

Celebrate horror, cult and weird cinema at the 14th edition of our Dundead festival.

We're very excited to be collaborating with feminist collective Invisible Women for this year's retrospective strand:

She's a Maneater! Cannibalism, Consumption and Carnal Appetites.

Alongside these six vintage titles, we're bringing you two UK premieres and four Scottish premieres, selected by Dundead Programmer Michael Coull, plus our Dundead Film Quiz is back.

See you there - if you dare!

DUNDEAD 2026 Thu 7 - Sun 10 May

SHE'S A MANEATER! CANNIBALISM, CONSUMPTION AND CARNAL APPETITES

Dumplings

An aging starlet tracks down dumplings said to have a magical properties, but what exactly is the secret ingredient?

Blood Diner

Two diner owners are on a cannibalistic quest to resurrect a man-eating ancient goddess in this over the top 80s gem.

Santo vs Frankenstein's Daughter

There's a formidable villainess at the heart of this gloriously pulpy luchador film.

Raw

Julia Ducournau's electrifying debut is both a brilliant coming of age story and a genuinely subversive feminist horror.

Trouble Every Day

A forerunner to the New French Extremity movement, Claire Denis' existential horror is strange and transgressive.

The Velvet Vampire

Vampire lore meets 70s free love and subversive second-wave politics in this stylish delight.

PETRIFYING PREMIERES

Camp

Join us for the UK premiere of this dreamlike tale of female friendship, grief and witchcraft set at a summer camp.

Theater is Dead

Something strange is happening behind the scenes in this charming horror comedy from writer director Katherine Dudas.

Book online at www.dca.org.uk or call on 01382 213 610

DUNDEAD 2025 Thu 8 - Sun 11 May

Roqia

This disturbing supernatural horror from Algeria is an unflinching portrait of a country torn apart by violence.

Buffet Infinity

We're bringing you the UK premiere of this totally unique film which takes the form of a string of TV ads that reveal a narrative.

Silencio

A generation-spanning vampire mini-epic that tells a fiercely queer tale with visual flare and litres of fake blood.

Her Will Be Done

With elements of folk horror and the supernatural, this is a beautifully observed coming of age story.

Ticket info

Individual tickets and festival passes go on general sale from Fri 27 March.

Depending on how brave you're feeling, you can immerse yourself in the festival with a Full or Half Pass. These include Dundead merch featuring this years artwork by Glasgow-based illustrator Agnes Xantippa Boman. DCA Supporters, Members and 18-25 Members get priority booking and discounts on passes.

FULL PASS

12 Films +
T-shirt + Print
£102

HALF PASS

6 Films + T-shirt
£54

Thu 7 May

Camp (UK Premiere)
Dumplings

18:00
20:30

Fri 8 May

Dundead Film Quiz
Theater is Dead (Scottish Premiere)
Blood Diner

18:00
20:00
22:00

Sat 9 May

Roqia (Scottish Premiere)
Santo vs Frankenstein's Daughter
Buffet Infinity (UK Premiere)
Raw (10th Anniversary)

12:45
15:00
18:15
20:45

Sun 10 May

Trouble Every Day
Silencio (Scottish Premiere)
Her will Be Done (Scottish Premiere)
The Velvet Vampire

12:45
15:15
18:15
20:30