

Kick off the summer fun with Elio, arriving at DCA this week with great ticket deals for families of three and four. This new story from Disney and Pixar follows a young space fanatic who is identified as Earth's leader by a group of eccentric aliens.

French rom-com Jane Austen Wrecked My Life follows a bookseller caught in a love triangle, and there's more time to see zombie thriller 28 Years Later. Join us for documentaries The Encampments, which follows the Palestine solidarity protests, and As The Tide Comes In, concluding our UK Green Film Festival screenings.

Elsewhere, see Werner Herzog's Fitzcarraldo and its making-of documentary Burden of Dreams (4K Restoration) together for the special price of £16. Finally, we're delighted to welcome artist Caroline Walker and director Nicola Black to DCA for a special screening of their film Women's Work, followed by a Q&A.

Fri 27 June - Thu 3 July
