

It's that time of year again! DUNDEAD 2026 brings audiences four days of vintage and contemporary horror and cult classics alongside four Scottish, and two UK premieres. This year's festival retrospective strand She's a Maneater! Cannibalism, Consumption and Carnal Appetites is in collaboration with feminist archive collective Invisible Women.

The Devil Wears Prada 2 continues in our cinema this week, don't miss out on the sequel to the iconic fashion comedy featuring the return of the full original cast. New to our screens this week, Primavera is a fictional account of Vivaldi's time as a resident composer and teacher in Venice from the perspective of a talented female student.

Venture into the great Scottish outdoors in The North. Two former friends and roommates meet up after a decade to hike the West Highland Way and Cape Wrath Trail. Rebuilding stars Oscar winner Amy Madigan and follows Josh O'Connor as a divorced father and ranch owner who loses his home in a wildfire.

Fri 8 - Thu 14 May

The Devil Wears Prada 2 (12A, 2h)

Andy Sachs returns to Runway magazine 20 years later to help her former boss, Miranda Priestly, navigate the decline of print publishing in this fashion comedy sequel starring Meryl Streep, Anne Hathaway, Stanley Tucci, and Emily Blunt alongside many fashion icons and an unforgettable pop star cameo.

Rebuilding

Primavera (15, 1h52m)

A fictionalised account of Antonio Vivaldi's time as resident composer and violin teacher at the Ospedale della Pietà, a refuge for orphaned and abandoned children in Venice. The story is told from the perspective of one of his most talented female students, centring a woman's story in a historically patriarchal society.

Primavera

The North (15, 2h11m)

Two former friends and roommates meet up after a decade to hike Scotland's West Highland Way and Cape Wrath Trail. Having taken the same 350-mile walk in their youth the pair hope to rekindle their once-strong friendship by spending 30 days together in the majestic, raw beauty of the Scottish Highlands.

The North

Rebuilding (PG, 1h36m)

After a wildfire destroys his home, divorced father and ranch owner Dusty must plant new roots. Now living in a close-knit trailer community, he quietly reassembles his life, reconnecting with his estranged young daughter and ex-wife. A heartfelt portrait of resilience and human connection in the wake of loss.
