

Dive into the action this week at DCA Cinema with Mission: Impossible – The Final Reckoning, starring Tom Cruise. Elsewhere, there's more time to enjoy summer hits The Salt Path and The Phoenician Scheme, along with uplifting Scottish documentary Make it to Munich.

Travel back to the sixties with Darling (60th Anniversary 4K Restoration), see Gillian Anderson in NT Live: A Streetcar Named Desire, and join us for Tomboy, the first of three screenings to celebrate Dundee Pride. Elsewhere, Acts of Creation curator Hettie Judah selects Tully to conclude her Curator's Choice Screenings.

For little cinemagoers, don't miss our Discovery Family Film Club film, Fox and Hare Save the Forest. Finally, Greg Sestero returns to DCA for a screening of The Room, along with the Scottish Premiere of cult director Tommy Wiseau's follow-up project, Big Shark. Both screenings will be followed by a Q&A. Enjoy!

Fri 6 - Thu 12 June

Mission: Impossible - The Final Reckoning (12A, 2h50m)
Tom Cruise stars as special agent Ethan Hunt in this latest - and possibly last - entry into the Mission: Impossible film series.

Mission: Impossible - The Final Reckoning

The Salt Path (15, 1h41m)
A profound true story which follows a married couple who walk 630 miles in search of solace after losing their savings and home.

The Salt Path

Make it to Munich (12A, 1h32m)
This inspiring documentary from Scotland follows a promising young footballer who cycles to Munich after a life-changing traffic accident.

Make it to Munich

Big Shark (Scottish Premiere) + Q&A with Greg Sestero (18, 1h45m + 30m Q&A)
Be part of the first audience in Scotland to see the first feature directed by Tommy Wiseau since 2003's legendary The Room.
