

The world of samurai and the Scottish Highlands collide in Tornado, the new thriller from local director John Maclean (Slow Horses). Join us after each screening for a recorded Q&A between John Maclean and David Nixon, DCA's Head of Cinema.

Elsewhere, Tim Key stars as an eccentric lottery winner in The Ballad of Wallis Island, and there's more time to see Mission: Impossible – The Final Reckoning. Documentary A New Kind of Wilderness follows an off-grid family who rejoin society, while Riefenstahl inspects the legacy of the infamous Nazi propagandist.

We're screening Mon Oncle in collaboration with V&A Dundee for their major exhibition Garden Futures: Designing in Nature, and our next film to celebrate Dundee Pride is Pariah. Finally, catch a rare chance to see 28 Days Later on the big screen ahead of 28 Years Later – you'll even get a sneak peek of the new film. Enjoy!

Fri 13 - Thu 19 June

Tornado + Recorded Q&A (15, 1h31m)
