

Join us this week for Richard Linklater's Blue Moon, starring Ethan Hawke as lyricist Lorenz Hart. Also coming is It Was Just an Accident, the fiercely political Palme d'Or winner from Iranian director Jafar Panahi.

There's more time to see Wake Up Dead Man: A Knives Out Mystery and The Choral, and you can enjoy two vintage classics with Dundead: The Shining (45th Anniversary) and Sunset Boulevard (75th Anniversary). Elsewhere, catch tender drama Dreamers and our next Live from the Met opera, Andrea Chénier.

Get into the festive spirit this week with a host of films, including CBeebies Panto 2025: Cinderella, along with It's a Wonderful Life and The Muppet Christmas Carol. There's alternative seasonal fun with Gremlins and Die Hard, and you can even put your knowledge to the test with our annual Christmas Film Quiz. Enjoy!

Fri 12 - Thu 18 December

Blue Moon (15, 1h40m)

Richard Linklater's feature sees legendary lyricist Lorenz Hart face the future as his life unravels on Oklahoma!'s opening night.

Blue Moon

It Was Just an Accident (12A, 1h43m)

A fiercely political look at revenge and mercy which sees a man receive the unexpected chance to confront his prison torturer.

It Was Just an Accident

Dreamers (15, 1h18m)

Two women fall in love at an immigration centre in this visually bold and deeply moving directorial debut from Joy Gharoro-Akpojotor.

Dreamers

Wake Up Dead Man: A Knives Out Mystery (12A, 2h20m)

Daniel Craig is joined by Josh O'Connor, Glenn Close, Josh Brolin and more for the next film in the hit Knives Out mystery series.

Sunset Boulevard (75th Anniversary) (12A, 1h50m)

A 4K restoration of 1950's multi-Academy Award-winning ode to the silver screen, which explores the darker side of Hollywood.
