

Join us for an inspiring true story this week as The Great Escaper arrives at DCA. Michael Caine stars as Bernard Jordan, who made headlines when he staged a “great escape” from his care home to join fellow veterans in Normandy to commemorate the D-Day Landings. His defiant “can-do” spirit is captured with warmth in this moving tale.

You can catch the comedic origin story of the first smartphone in BlackBerry, feel the electricity of the Talking Heads with Stop Making Sense 4K, and join us for a powerful tale of xenophobia with R.M.N. And if you’re looking for October holiday entertainment, we’re revisiting our 2022 Discovery Shorts for Wee Ones and Middle Ones ahead of this year’s Discovery Film Festival.

Elsewhere, join us for a screening of Allelujah, enjoy a new adaptation of The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and there’s still time to catch Ken Loach’s The Old Oak. Finally, we’re delighted to welcome director Carol Morley and producer Cairo Carron to DCA for a preview screening of Typist Artist Pirate King, which pays tribute to forgotten artist Audrey Amiss. Enjoy!
