

Buckle up for riotous comedy caper Drive-Away Dolls, arriving at DCA this week. Directed by Ethan Coen (Fargo, The Big Lebowski), this playful, queer take on the road movie focuses on two unlikely friends who embark on an impromptu trip – only to be interrupted by a group of inept criminals.

Also on screen is Origin, which chronicles the journey of Pulitzer Prize winning journalist Isabel Wilkerson, piercing frontier epic The Settlers, and sci-fi blockbuster Dune: Part Two. You can revisit 2024 Oscar winners Anatomy of a Fall and Poor Things, Live from the Met is back with Romeo et Juliette, and experience Ryuichi Sakamoto – Opus, the moving final concert of the legendary composer.

Finally, it's our 25th birthday, and we've planned a host of screenings to mark the occasion, with something to suit every taste. Take a trip back to 1999 with nostalgic romcom 10 Things I Hate About You and horror-comedy Ravenous or enjoy some family fun with Discovery Shorts for Wee Ones and Tinies. We can't wait to celebrate with you!
