Beautiful epics, inspiring true-life stories, Japanese kaiju, visionary satire and Rocky Balboa himself arrive at DCA Cinema this week. Don't miss La Bola Negra, the dazzling, heartbreaking and awards-tipped story of three lives intertwined through decades that our Head of Cinema says "should only be seen on the big screen."

A historic equal accessiblity rights protest is brought to the screen in the acclaimed Being Heumann, from the Oscar-winning director of CODA. The king of the monsters returns in Toho Cinema's earth-shaking Godzilla Minus Zero, Boots Riley is back with funny, furious and outrageous fashion satire I Love Boosters, and we celebrate Rocky's 50th anniversary with 4K restoration screenings.

Plus, French Film Festival begins with the hilarious farce Comédie Française, which was a massive hit at its native box office this summer, Giant - The Play sees Roald Dahl face the music, and there are more screenings of Martin McDonagh's star-studded comic tragedy Wild Horse Nine and the wonderful Wildwood.
