Jeremy Allen White (The Bear) is The Boss in Springsteen: Deliver Me From Nowhere, arriving at DCA this week. This biopic explores the story behind Springsteen's 1982 Nebraska album, considered one of his most enduring works.

Join us for Frankenstein, directed by Oscar-winner Guillermo del Toro and starring Oscar Isaac and Jacob Elordi. We're also screening documentary Kenny Dalglish + Recorded Q&A and true story I Swear, along with NT Live: Mrs Warren's Profession and a Surprise Preview (Scottish Premiere) for Dundead Halloween.

Discovery Film Festival, our international film festival for young audiences, starts this weekend – and all screenings are Donate What You Can! We've got Shorts for Tinies, Wee Ones (3+) and Families (7+), along with feature films Living Large, Tales From the Magic Garden and Jump!. Enjoy!

Fri 24 - Thu 30 October

Springsteen: Deliver Me from Nowhere (12A, 1h59m) A pivotal time in Bruce Springsteen's life is captured in this biopic, which stars Emmy-winner Jeremy Allen White in the leading role.

Frankenstein (15, 2h29m)

A celebrated new take on Mary Shelley's classic Gothic tale, featuring Oscar Isaac as Victor Frankenstein and Jacob Elordi as the Creature.

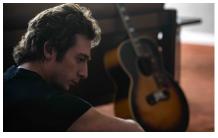

This true story follows the triumphs and challenges of a young man with Tourette's Syndrome growing up in Scotland in the 1980s.

Kenny Dalglish + Recorded Q&A (12A, 1h44m + 20m Q&A) The iconic footballer narrates his own story in this documentary, which features a 20-minute recorded Q&A, exclusive to cinemas.

Living Large (PG, 1h20m)

The first feature film of Discovery Film Festival is an award-winning stop-motion animation, recommended for ages 10+.
