

Donald Trump's origins are brought to life in The Apprentice, arriving at DCA this week. New releases include Alice Lowe's time-hopping comedy Timestalker, coming-of-age tale Girls Will Be Girls, and documentary Notes from Sheepland.

On Tuesday, we welcome director Duncan Cowles for a post-screening Q&A following his documentary Silent Men. This week also sees our Dundead Halloween season start with Eraserhead and a Surprise Preview, you can join us for Starstruck - Gene Kelly's Love Letter to Ballet, and there's more time to see Joker: Folie à Deux.

Elsewhere, Surrealism on Film concludes with 8 ½ (35mm), and our next Live from the Met screening is Grounded. Plus, we're bringing The Outrun and Endurance back by popular demand - don't miss the chance to see them on the big screen.

Finally, Discovery Film Festival 2024 begins this weekend with our Peruvian opening film Through Rocks and Clouds, which features a superstar alpaca. We're also screening animated magic with Chicken for Linda! and Tony, Shelly and the Magic Light, and Finnish activist documentary Once Upon a Time in a Forest. Enjoy!

Fri 18 - Thu 24 October

The Apprentice (15, 2h)

Sebastian Stan (A Different Man) and Jeremy Strong (Succession) star in this provocative biopic about Donald Trump's rise to infamy.

The Apprentice

Girls Will Be Girls (15, 1h58m)

This coming-of-age drama follows Mira, a 16-year-old who discovers desire for the first time while enrolled in boarding school.

Girls Will Be Girls

Timestalker (15, 1h36m)

Alice Lowe directs and stars in this time-loop comedy, in which the hapless heroine must escape dying for the same man in every lifetime.

Timestalker

Notes from Sheepland (15, 1h11m)

Dive into the life and passions of Irish artist and shepherd Orla Barry in this fascinating documentary about the world of sheep farming.

Through Rocks and Clouds (7+, 1h23m)

Our opening film for Discovery Film Festival 2024 is this Andean feature about a young boy and his alpaca named Ronaldo.
