

Take a world trip at DCA Cinema this week, with acclaimed filmmaking including Alice Rohrwacher's (Happy as Lazzaro) magical realist drama La Chimera. Escape to the Mediterranean with French-language comedy Two Tickets to Greece, and visit rural Ireland with That They May Face the Rising Sun.

Elsewhere, explore the history of the camera with Fantastic Machine, and see a guerrilla filmmaking classic with Mapantsula. There's another chance to catch NT Live: *Nye, and we finish our Solar Flares: Deaf Heritage season with short films themed on Creativity. We'll also begin Sukaina Kubba's Artist's Choice Screenings with documentary Nostalgia for the Light.

Finally, Dundead Horror Film Festival is full steam ahead! Don't miss a weekend of Scottish Premieres including Humanist Vampire Seeking Consenting Suicidal Person, Falling Stars, She is Conann, Booger, and Red Rooms. We're also looking back at the history of slasher films – get ready for The Slumber Party Massacre Double Bill, Candyman, Blood and Black Lace and The Texas Chainsaw Massacre.

Fri 17 - Thu 23 May

La Chimera (15, 2h11m)

Josh O'Connor stars as an archeologist who aids a ragtag group of graverobbers in this dreamy mix of history, romance and mystery.

La Chimera

Two Tickets to Greece (15, 1h50m)

Take a trip to the sundrenched Greek Islands in this breezy French comedy which celebrates female camaraderie and friendship.

Two Tickets to Greece

That They May Face the Rising Sun (15, 1h47m)

This beautifully realised adaption of John McGahern's last novel captures a year in the life of a rural community in 70s Ireland.

That They May Face the Rising Sun

Fantastic Machine (15, 1h28m)

Explore the history of the camera and our fascination with it in this documentary, from the camera obscura to the world of social media.

Mapantsula (15, 1h43m)

A rare chance to see this classic of guerilla filmmaking, produced in secret under censorship during South African apartheid, and now restored in 4K to mark the 30th anniversary of Freedom Day.
