

Step into the magical world of My Neighbour Totoro this week at DCA Cinema, as this beloved Ghibli film makes its return to the big screen. Following the gentle lives of two young girls and the nature spirit who befriends them, this whimsical animated adventure is now regarded as a classic. See it dubbed in English or in Japanese with subtitles.

We're also screening two fascinating documentaries this week: The Echo, which focuses on childhood in rural Mexico, and A Story of Bones, which reckons with the impact of the slave trade. For more quality filmmaking from acclaimed directors, don't miss Nuri Bilge Ceylan's About Dry Grasses, and our Béla Tarr retrospective begins with Werckmeister Harmonies.

Elsewhere, we've got plenty of superhero action lined up, with more chances to see Deadpool & Wolverine, along with Spider-Man 2 from the Sam Raimi trilogy. You can also take a trip back to the nineties with coming-of-age comedy-drama Alma's Rainbow and enjoy a 4K restoration of Coraline. Finally, our Dundead screening for this month is a slice of gothic strangeness in the form of The Vourdalak. Enjoy!
