

Step into the world of The Fantastic Four: First Steps, arriving at DCA this week. An excellent cast of Pedro Pascal, Vanessa Kirby, Joseph Quinn and Ebon Moss-Bachrach play Marvel's first family as they face their most daunting challenge yet.

Elsewhere, Irish romantic drama Four Letters of Love follow two lovers pulled apart and brought back together by fate, while Spanish-language feature The Other Way Around sees a couple throw a party to celebrate their break-up. We've also brought back The Ballad of Wallis Island by popular demand.

Documentary Wind, Tide & Oar celebrates the wonders of sailing, and we've got more cinema from Ireland with 1984's Cal, starring Helen Mirren. Finally, enjoy a double-bill of horror hit M3GAN and its sequel M3GAN 2.0 – you can see both for the special price of £16 when booked at the same time. Enjoy!

Fri 25 - Thu 31 July

The Fantastic Four: First Steps (12A, 1h54m)

Set against the backdrop of a retro-futuristic world, this vibrant entry into the world of Marvel introduces their first super family.

The Fantastic Four: First Steps

Four Letters of Love (12A, 1h50m)

A sweeping, romantic tale set in Ireland, which follows two young lovers driven apart by family but brought together by destiny.

Four Letters of Love

The Other Way Around (12A, 1h54m)

A wry comedy-drama which follows a couple who choose to celebrate their break-up with a party - but are they sure of their decision?

The Other Way Around

The Ballad of Wallis Island (12A, 1h40m)

Infused with original folk music, this charming and funny story follows a lottery winner who hatches a scheme to reunite his favourite band.

Wind, Tide & Oar (PG, 1h24m)

A compelling exploration into engineless sailing, shot over three years on analogue film using a 1960s hand-wound camera.
