

Join us for powerful drama this week at DCA Cinema with Opponent, which follows an Iranian immigrant concealing a life-altering secret, and Kidnapped, the true story of a Jewish child taken by the Catholic church in 19th century Italy, retold by veteran filmmaker Marco Bellocchio.

There's still time to see Challengers and Love Lies Bleeding, two of the buzziest films of 2024 so far, and there are plenty of laughs in store with Billy Connolly: Big Banana Feet, which captures the legendary comedian's 1975 tour of Ireland. Also screening this week is documentary Much Ado About Dying, which explores the complexities of growing old with grace and humour.

Elsewhere, our Ealing Comedies season continues with The Lavender Hill Mob, we finish Live from the Met 2023-24 on a high with Madama Butterfly, and you can enjoy more shorts from Solar Flares: Deaf Heritage – the next screening focuses on Deaf Identities. Finally, Dundead Horror Film Festival begins this Thursday! Don't miss our Dundead Opening Film: Sting (UK Premiere) and should-be cult classic Skinned Deep (20th Anniversary).
