

A nurse is pushed to breaking point over one night in Late Shift, the gripping medical drama arriving at DCA Cinema this week. Elsewhere, enjoy vivid stop-motion animation in Savages, directed by Claude Barras (My Life as a Courgette).

Horror-thriller Weapons arrives and the scares continue with a Dundead screening of The Night of the Hunter (70th Anniversary). We travel to the world of Jane Austen for Ang Lee's Sense and Sensibility (30th Anniversary), while documentary Blue Road: The Edna O'Brien Story focuses on the Irish novelist.

Finally, revisit the works of Austrian auteur Michael Haneke with our Complicit retrospective – we begin with The Seventh Continent and Funny Games (35mm). You can see any two films from this season for the special price of £16 when booked at the same time. Enjoy!

Fri 8 - Thu 14 August

Late Shift (12A, 1h31m)

Leonie Benesch (The Teacher's Lounge) stars as a dedicated nurse pushed to the brink working in a hospital on the verge of collapse.
