

It's a family affair at DCA this week, starting strong with The Golden Lion Prize winner at the 2025 Venice film festival Father Mother Sister Brother featuring a star-studded cast. Brian Cox and Alan Cumming are two brothers reunited to determine the fate of their family whisky distillery in Glenrothan, and don't miss Anne Hathaway as a pop icon in Mother Mary featuring original music from Charli xcx and FKA twigs.

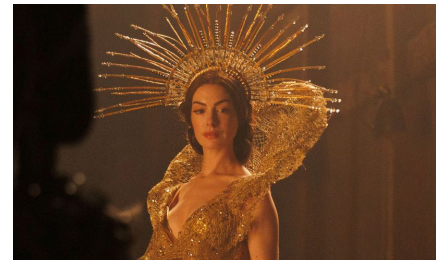

We can't choose our family, but we can our friends, Arco is a BAFTA and Academy Award nominated story of a young boy that journeys through time to get back home with the help of a newfound friend and a robot. Stand By Me (40th Anniversary) returns to cinemas allowing fans and new viewers alike the opportunity to see the classic '80s coming-of-age adventure on the big screen, and Don't Be Prey takes us to the seven seas for a gripping documentary about life, survival and extreme swimming.

There are more chances to see California Schemin', and on Saturday we have a special California Schemin' + Q+A with musician Billy Boyd that is not to be missed.
