

Enjoy enchanting animated adventure Kensuke's Kingdom this week at DCA Cinema. Adapted from Michael Morpurgo's bestselling novel, this hand-drawn animation tells the story of a young boy and his dog, shipwrecked on an island. What's more, our Discovery Family Film Club screenings this weekend are Pay What You Can (£0-£8).

Join us for Crossing, a moving tale of identity and unlikely connection set in Turkey and Georgia, and once-in-a-lifetime documentary The Commandant's Shadow, which captures the moment when the son of the Commandant of Auschwitz met an incredible Holocaust survivor. You can also see 1971's Bushman, a unique and poetic portrait of the experience of Nigerian immigrants in New York City.

Elsewhere, grab your tickets for the ultimate superhero mash-up Deadpool & Wolverine, and for more Marvel action, catch the return of Sam Raimi's Spider-Man trilogy to DCA, starting with the first instalment this week. Finally, it's set to be a new cult classic, discussed in the same breath as The Craft and Donnie Darko: don't miss I Saw the TV Glow, including our special Dundead screening on Friday.

Fri 2 - Thu 8 August

Kensuke's Kingdom (PG, 1h24m)

This thrilling animation follows a young boy, washed up on a deserted island, and the kindly Japanese stranger who helps him survive.

Kensuke's Kingdom

Deadpool & Wolverine (15, 2h10m)

Hugh Jackman and Ryan Reynolds suit up and save the world in this outrageously funny superhero crossover from Marvel Studios.

Deadpool & Wolverine

I Saw the TV Glow (15, 1h40m)

This evocative story of suburban horrors and coming-of-age in the 1990s offers an uncompromising new vision of queer cinema.

I Saw the TV Glow

Crossing (15, 1h46m)

This tender tale follows Lia, a retired Georgian school teacher, as she travels to Turkey in search for her long lost transgender niece.

The Commandant's Shadow (12A, 1h43m)

This documentary follows Hans Jürgen Höss, the son of Rudolf Höss, as he faces his father's terrible legacy for the first time.
