

We've got some uplifting films for you this week – in every sense! Don't miss our special Q&A screening of feelgood comedy-drama Power Ballad on Saturday; we'll be joined by musician and songwriter Gary Clark who wrote music for the film.

Gripping documentary The Balloonists tells the story of a legendary 1999 attempt to circumnavigate the globe in a hot air balloon, and Hen follows a chicken who takes flight from a battery farm and makes her way in the confusing human world. Then we're heading to the stars with a chance to see Christopher Nolan's Oscar-winning sci-fi spectacular Interstellar on 35mm.

Plus, don't miss two beautiful mountain-set films showing this week. A group of New Zealand teens set out to climb Mount Taranaki in Discovery Family Film Club: The Mountain, a coming-of-age drama for age 12+, and The Condor Daughter is the story of a young woman who dreams of a life beyond her home in the Bolivian Andes.

Fri 5 - Thu 11 June

Power Ballad (15, 1h38m)

Paul Rudd and Nick Jonas star in this feelgood comedy drama about a stolen song from writer-director John Carney (Sing Street).

Power Ballad

The Balloonists (PG, 1h26m)

This documentary tells the story of balloonists Bertrand Piccard and Brian Jones, who set out to circumnavigate the globe non-stop in 1999.

The Balloonists

Hen (15, 1h36m)

This birds-eye-view Greek drama follows an escaped battery chicken who becomes an unwitting witness to the human lives around her.

Interstellar (35mm) (12A, 2h49m)

To celebrate Christopher Nolan's upcoming The Odyssey, we're bringing his 2014 sci-fi epic back to the big screen on glorious 35mm.

The Condor Daughter (18, 1h43m)

An apprentice midwife in the Bolivian Andes dreams of becoming a singer. Screening as part of CinemaAttic's Latin Connections Festival.

The Condor Daughter

Obsession (18, 1h48m)

A young man makes a wish to win the heart of his crush, but soon discovers that some desires come at a dark, sinister price.
