

Heroes and villains take over DCA this week. Star Wars: The Mandalorian and Grogu transports us to a galaxy far far away starring Pedro Pascal, Sigourney Weaver and Jeremy Allen White. The Wizard of the Kremlin is set in post-soviet Russia and follows a fictional Russian filmmaker that becomes an unlikely advisor to Putin in his rise to power, starring Jude Law and Paul Dano.

We have our first Artist's Choice Screening: *The Wiz from Francis Dosoo which is part of his exhibition in Gallery One, Portrait of Dorothy Gale. The film is a retelling of The Wizard of Oz directed by Sidney Lumet starring music superstar Michael Jackson as the scarecrow alongside singer and Oscar nominee Diana Ross who stars as Dorothy Gale.

Documentary Northern Soul: Still Burning explores the cultural phenomenon and charts how the movement has transformed through the decades. We have NT Live: The Playboy of the Western World on our screens starring Nicola Coughlan and Siobhán McSweeney, and The Christophers continues starring Ian McKellen as an aged artist whose children attempt to forge his artworks for their inheritance.

Fri 22 - Thu 28 May

Star Wars: The Mandalorian and Grogu (12A, 2h12m)

The evil Empire has fallen, and Imperial warlords remain scattered throughout the galaxy. As the fledgling New Republic works to protect everything the Rebellion fought for, they have enlisted the help of legendary Mandalorian bounty hunter Din Djarin (Pedro Pascal) and his young apprentice Grogu for their most thrilling mission yet.

Star Wars: The Mandalorian and Grogu

The Christophers (15, 1h40m)

Ian McKellen stars in this comedy-drama as a broke, once acclaimed painter that hasn't put paint to canvas in decades. His two estranged children, desperate for an inheritance, hire an art restorer and former forger to pose as a prospective assistant in order to access unfinished canvases Julian has buried deep in storage.

The Christophers

The Wizard of the Kremlin (15, 2h16m)

In 1990s Russia, filmmaker Vladim Baranov (Paul Dano) shapes the country, blurring the boundaries between truth and lies, belief and manipulation. After retreating into silence for years and shrouded in mystery, Baranov finally opens up, revealing the dark secrets of the regime he helped build working for Vladimir Putin (Jude Law).

Romeria

Romeria (15, 1h54m)

Set on the Galician coast in the early 2000s, 18-year-old Marina travels in search of information about her biological father. Reading from her mother's diary, Marina takes the opportunity to uncover what she can about her estranged paternal family, and discovers the reason for their secrecy around her father's death.
