Weekly highlights

Fri 28 March – Thu 3 April

Acclaimed new thrillers to enjoy

If you love thrillers, check out spy story Black Bag and crime drama Santosh. The Catalan Film Festival returns with Catalan Shorts and Los destellos. Don't miss art documentary War Paint – Women at War and The Apartment in 4K, plus we've got Snow White and Shorts for Tinies for the school holidays.

Santosh

Fri 4 – Thu 10 April

Easter holiday treats and more

Tilda Swinton stars in apocalyptic musical The End, while Mr Burton stars Toby Jones as the teacher who inspired the young Richard Burton. I Am Martin Parr is a new documentary about the maverick photographer, then there's more fun for young film fans with A Minecraft Movie and Oscar-winning animation Flow.

Flow

Classic myths and modern legends

Ralph Fiennes and Juliette Binoche star in The Return, a retelling of scenes from Homer's Odyssey, then a mythical beast comes to life in comedy-horror Death of a Unicorn. Two powerful vintage films – La Haine and Dudead: Picnic at Hanging Rock – are screening in 4K, and we've got new documentaries Neil Young: Coastal and Ernest Cole: Lost and Found.

Death of a Unicorn

The Penguin Lessons

Fri 18 – Thu 24 April

Ryan Coogler returns with Sinners

Anticipation is high for Sinners, a historical horror from Ryan Coogler, starring Michael B. Jordan. Steve Coogan is a teacher who adopts a penguin in The Penguin Lessons, and the tender relationship between photographer Joel Meyerowitz and artist Maggie Barrett is explored in Two Strangers Trying Not To Kill Each Other.

And more coming soon...

Look out for these new films

There's lots to look forward to for the rest of April and May, including the final operas in our Live from the Met season; The Stimming Pool, created by a collective of neurodiverse filmmakers; Neil Brand Presents: Silent Comedy Triple Bill with live music and plenty of laughs; and this year's Dudead horror festival. Then we eagerly await the release of Wes Anderson's The Phoenician Scheme...
