

At DCA there is truly something for everyone this week! The Devil Wears Prada 2 reunites the original cast with cameos from many fashion icons and celebrities. On Fri 1 May at 20:00 a special screening will be introduced by Svetlana Panova, one of the co-curators of V&A Dundee's exhibition: Catwalk: The Art of the Fashion Show.

Come with us on a trip around the world: Midwinter Break is based on the acclaimed novel and follows a retired couple on a trip to Amsterdam; The Stranger is set in Algeria and based on the classic Camus novel L'Etranger; and we have the last chance to see an anniversary screening of French romance Amélie (25th Anniversary). If you would prefer a staycation, we have Scottish films Glenrothan and California Schemin' in their final week here at DCA, you don't want to miss out!

DUNDEAD 2026 kicks off on Thu 7 May with Camp (UK Premiere) and Dumplings. Immerse yourself in all 12 films with a Full Pass or pick six titles to see with a Half Pass – each pass comes with Dundead 2026 merch – or alternatively, each film can be booked individually to tailor your weekend to your liking.

Fri 1 - Thu 7 May

The Devil Wears Prada 2 (12A, 2h)

Andy Sachs returns to Runway magazine 20 years later to help her former boss, Miranda Priestly, navigate the decline of print publishing in this fashion comedy sequel.

The Devil Wears Prada 2

Midwinter Break (12A, 1h30m)

A retired couple travel from their home in Glasgow to Amsterdam for an impromptu holiday but as the hours pass and they reflect on their decades together they realise that their relationship has reached a crossroads.

Midwinter Break

The Stranger (15, 2h2m)

François Ozon returns with a career-best work, an exquisite adaptation of Albert Camus's classic existential novel. Shot in crisp black and white, the film is a masterful interpretation, reconstituting some of the novel's themes for the modern era.

The Stranger

The Room + Q+A with Greg Sestero (18, 1h39m + Q+A)

A special screening of The Room featuring a live script reading and Q&A with Greg Sestero - star of The Room and New York Times best-selling author.

Amélie (25th Anniversary) (15, 2h3m)

Another chance to enjoy the charming French romantic comedy as it celebrates its 25th anniversary. Starring Audrey Tautou as a waitress improving the lives of others.
