

Join us this week at DCA for The Testament of Ann Lee, a remarkable musical drama from writer-director Mona Fastvold (The Brutalist), starring Amanda Seyfried. Also screening is The Secret Agent, a Brazilian political thriller which has received four Oscar nominations, including Best Picture.

We're screening Iraqi drama The President's Cake, there's more time to see Emerald Fennell's Wuthering Heights, and we've brought back Hamnet and Song Sung Blue by popular demand. From the comfort of the cinema, theatre fans can enjoy NT Live: The Audience and a compelling new production of Othello.

The Japan Foundation programme continues with Blue Boy Trial, and documentary Molly vs The Machines + Recorded Debate explores how technology impacts young people. Finally, you can be amongst the first to see Gus Van Sant's latest film at our special Glasgow Film Festival preview of Dead Man's Wire. Enjoy!
