

Travel back to the thrilling days of the Apollo 11 launch with Fly Me to the Moon, screening this week at DCA. Starring Scarlett Johansson and Channing Tatum, this sharp, stylish comedy-drama focuses on NASA's marketing team, who are tasked with staging a fake moon landing as back-up.

If you love documentaries, there's plenty to choose from this week. Delve into the return of an iconic Britpop group in blur: To The End, celebrate trans identity in Orlando: My Political Biography, and follow a group of athletes in their 60s, 70s and 80s in Younger + short film. Elsewhere, don't miss terrifying new horror Longlegs, featuring a spine-chilling performance from Nicolas Cage.

Swap frights for laughter with animated family adventure Despicable Me 4, revisit a much-loved classic with Forrest Gump (30th Anniversary 4K Reissue) and see Andrew Scott's star turn in Present Laughter. Finally, the ultimate superhero team-up arrives at DCA: join us for a Thursday evening preview of Deadpool & Wolverine.
