

Don't miss one of the funniest films of 2025 as Friendship arrives at DCA. Paul Rudd and the singular Tom Robinson star as two halves of a bromance gone wrong in this black comedy which will have you laughing and cringing in equal measure.

Also screening is documentary The Last Journey, which captures a son's attempt to bring joy back to his elderly father's life through a road trip, and The Way We Talk, a heartfelt drama from Hong Kong which follows three Deaf friends. Elsewhere, there's more time to see Superman, How to Train Your Dragon and The Salt Path.

Finally, join us for two stunning 4K restorations of classic vintage tales: romantic comedy Desperately Seeking Susan stars Madonna and is currently celebrating its 40th birthday, while Stanley Kubrick's Barry Lyndon tells the tale of a sensitive and dashing rogue and was first released 50 years ago. Enjoy!
