

Awards season contenders arrive in DCA Cinema this week, along with family favourites, gun-slinging classics, and more. Sandra Hüller continues her dazzling run of form in award-winning historical drama Fatherland, and Laika's hand-made animated epic Wildwood demands to be seen on the big screen.

Ghosts: The Possession of Button House brings the beloved sitcom to the big screen, and a Parisian internal affairs officer takes on police brutality in Case 137. Sergio Leone's iconic The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly celebrates its 60th anniversary in 4K, and Dundead Halloween treats us to The Return of the Living Dead with live drag performance and this year's Surprise Preview screening.

Plus, Scottish Mental Health Arts Festival presents the powerful documentary My Word Against Mine with a Q&A, our Aardman: 50 Years of Clay season enters its final week, and there are also more chances to catch The Lost Children of Tuam, Fallen Angels by Noël Coward, and Hadestown: The Musical.

Fri 23 - Thu 29 October

Fatherland (12A, 1h22m)

The exiled writer Thomas Mann returns to Germany with his daughter Erika (Sandra Hüller) in this award-winning drama.

Fatherland

Wildwood (12A, 2h12m)

Prepare to be swept away by Laika's latest stop-motion epic. A teenager must rescue her baby brother from an enchanted realm.

Wildwood

Ghosts: The Possession of Button House (PG, 1h37m)

The ghosts are back in this feature spin-off from the beloved TV series, as a séance leads to Julian escaping in a ghost hunter's body.

Case 137 (12A, 2h2m)

A Parisian internal affairs officer investigates police violence at a protest in the new thriller from the director of The Night of the 12th.

The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly (60th Ann., 4K) (18, 2h59m)

Sergio Leone's masterpiece celebrates 60 years of gun-slinging and backstabbing, as Eastwood, Van Cleef and Wallach saddle up.

SMHAF: My Word Against Mine + Q&A (18, 2h23m)

Scottish Mental Health Arts Festival presents this powerful documentary about people who hear voices.

Dundead Halloween: The Return of the Living Dead + live drag performance (18, 1h46m)

Dig up your best 80s gear for the classic zom-com with live drag show.
