

Prepare to be scared as 28 Years Later: The Bone Temple arrives at DCA. This follow-up to horror hit 28 Years Later explores a world where the human survivors of the zombie apocalypse can be even more terrifying than the infected.

There's more time to see Hamnet, a deeply affecting tale of love and loss starring Paul Mescal as Shakespeare and Jessie Buckley as his wife, Agnes. Complement your trip to Hamnet by enjoying NT Live: Hamlet, the play which may have been inspired by the events depicted in the film.

Elsewhere, Hugh Jackman and Kate Hudson star in Song Sung Blue, you can see vintage feature L'Atalante and our next Artist's Choice Screening is Lauren Gault's Short Programme. Finally, we're delighted to welcome director Ben Wheatley to DCA for a Dundead screening of his new film Bulk, followed by a Q&A.

Fri 16 - Thu 22 January

28 Years Later: The Bone Temple (18, 1h50m)

Nia DaCosta directs a spine-chilling continuation of the 28 Years Later saga, which sees Ralph Fiennes reprise his role of Dr. Kelson.

28 Years Later: The Bone Temple

Hamnet (12A, 2h5m)

This poignant drama explores the love story between Agnes and William Shakespeare, and the deep loss that shook them both.

Hamnet

Song Sung Blue (12A, 2h12m)

Based on a true story, two down-on-their-luck musicians (Hugh Jackman and Kate Hudson) form a joyous Neil Diamond tribute band.

Song Sung Blue

NT Live: Hamlet (12A, 3h)

We're continuing the Shakespearian theme with a fearless, contemporary take on The Bard's legendary tragedy.

Dundead: Bulk + Q&A (15, 1h35m + 30m Q&A)

We can't wait to welcome director Ben Wheatley to DCA for a screening of his mind-bending sci-fi thriller Bulk, followed by a Q&A.

Last chance to see: bone stone voice alone

Until Sun 18 January

It's your last chance to explore Lauren Gault's major solo exhibition before it closes on Sun 18 January. This fascinating, expansive show combines sculpture, print, sound and moving image to investigate themes of land use in Scotland. DCA Galleries are always free to explore and are open late until 19:00 on Thursdays.

Audio description is available on all screenings of Hamnet, Song Sung Blue and 28 Years Later: The Bone Temple.
