

We're bringing an extraordinary life story from Scotland to DCA Cinema this week with I Swear, an uplifting feature film based on the experiences of Galashiels-born Tourettes Syndrome campaigner, John Davidson.

Elsewhere, Kathryn Bigelow (Zero Dark Thirty) directs A House of Dynamite, a tense thriller which sees a missile launched at the United States, and there's more time to see The Smashing Machine, One Battle After Another and Downton Abbey: The Grand Finale.

We're screening 1968's The Swimmer in collaboration with V&A Dundee to celebrate their Garden Futures: Designing in Nature exhibition, and you can enjoy an October holiday cinema trip with Discovery Family Film Club: Shorts for Wee Ones (suitable for 3+) and Shorts for Families (suitable for 8+).

Fri 10 - Thu 16 October

I Swear (15, 2h)

A true story which follows the triumphs and challenges of a young man with Tourette's Syndrome growing up in Scotland in the 1980s.

I Swear

A House of Dynamite (15, 1h52m)

This thriller sees a single, unattributed missile launched at the USA, triggering a race to discover who's responsible and how to respond.

A House of Dynamite

The Smashing Machine (15, 2h3m)

Dwayne Johnson plays legendary MMA fighter Mark Kerr in this atmospheric biopic from the acclaimed director of Uncut Gems.

The Smashing Machine

One Battle After Another (15, 2h50m)

Paul Thomas Anderson returns with an acclaimed action thriller starring Leonardo DiCaprio, Sean Penn and Benicio Del Toro.

Downton Abbey: The Grand Finale (PG, 2h2m)

Mary Crawley finds herself in the centre of a public scandal in the cinematic final chapter to the beloved British television series.
