

James McAvoy's California Schemin' hits our screens this week! Based on a real-life hoax, it's the story of two Dundee lads who faked their way to a record deal by pretending to be American. It's a wild ride that brought tears, cheers and laughter to our preview audiences in March. Don't miss it.

We've got a chance to see spectacular Chinese science-fiction epic Resurrection, and the fascinating new literary documentary Orwell: 2+2=5, exploring the modern relevance of the works of George Orwell. We've also added more screenings of dark romance The Drama, starring Zendaya and Robert Pattinson.

Acclaimed West End production NT Live: All My Sons is set to dazzle, with Olivier-nominated performances from both Bryan Cranston and Marianne Jean-Baptiste, and we're thrilled to bring back Baz Luhrmann's iconic 1996 Romeo + Juliet, celebrating its 30th anniversary.
