

From visionary director Jonathan Glazer comes The Zone of Interest, arriving at DCA this week. This penetrating rethink of Holocaust cinema focuses on the co-existence of horrendous cruelty and mundane daily life. See this Oscar-nominated film at DCA alongside another acclaimed work by Glazer, Under the Skin – buy tickets for both for the special price of £17.

Also coming up this week, Jodie Comer stars as a new mother seeking safety from severe floods in The End We Start From, and there is still time to enjoy moving and mysterious romance All of Us Strangers. Studio Ghibli's The Boy and the Heron is also back in DCA Cinema by popular demand, and is available to see in either Japanese with subtitles or dubbed in English.

Finally, you can enjoy a fascinating glimpse into the life of a legendary filmmaker with Werner Herzog: Radical Dreamer, and revisit his masterwork The Enigma of Kaspar Hauser on its 50th anniversary– like our Jonathan Glazer offer, you can see both Herzog titles for just £17. Enjoy!
