

Join us this week for The Salt Path, the true story of a married couple who embark on a 630-mile trek around the coastline of southwest England after losing their life savings. Led by Gillian Anderson and Jason Isaacs, this affecting drama considers what the true meaning of home is.

There's more time to catch family adventure Lilo & Stitch and Wes Anderson's The Phoenician Scheme. Hettie Judah, curator of Acts of Creation, has selected Diablo Cody's comedy-drama Young Adult to accompany the exhibition, and our final Live from the Met screening for the season is Il Barbiere di Siviglia.

See Gillian Anderson on screen twice this week, first in The Salt Path and as Blanche DuBois in NT Live: *A Streetcar Named Desire. Finally, join us for 3,000 feet: The Highlander, the Early Mountaineers and Scotland's Highest Mountains followed by a Q&A with filmmakers Kevin Woods and Lindsay Hill. Enjoy!

Fri 30 May - Thu 5 June

The Salt Path (12A, 1h55m)

A profound true story which follows a married couple who walk 630 miles in search of solace after losing their savings and home.

The Salt Path

Lilo & Stitch (U, 1h48m)

A lonely Hawaiian girl and her big sister adopt a fugitive alien in this delightful live-action reimagining of Disney's 2002 animated classic.

Lilo & Stitch

The Phoenician Scheme (15, 1h41m)

Wes Anderson returns to the director's chair with an espionage thriller starring Benicio del Toro as Zsa-zsa Korda, a corrupt billionaire.

The Phoenician Scheme

Young Adult (15, 1h34m)

Join us for our next Curator's Choice Screening, written by Diablo Cody and starring Charlize Theron as a self-obsessed author.

3,000 feet: The Highlander, the Early Mountaineers and Scotland's Highest Mountains + Q&A (PG, 1h35m)

Explore the remarkable origins of Scottish mountaineering and Hugh Thomas Munro, whose name is synonymous with this story.
